

Stokeinteignhead Parish Council

Standing Orders – Approved at Full Council May 2014

Standing Orders in bold are law

1. Meetings

- a) Meetings shall not take place in premises, which at the time of the meeting are used for the supply of alcohol unless no other premises are available free of charge or at a reasonable cost.
- b) Meetings shall be held at Stokeinteignhead Village Hall at 8pm in the evening unless the Council otherwise decides at a previous meeting.
- c) Smoking is not permitted at any meeting of the Council.
- d) When calculating the 3 clear days' notice for a meeting, the day on which was issued, the day of a meeting, a Sunday, a day of the Christmas break, a day of the Easter break, a bank holiday, or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning shall not count.
- e) No business may be transacted at a meeting unless at least one third of the whole number of members of the Council are present and in no case shall the quorum of a meeting be less than 3. If a quorum is not present or if during a meeting the number of Councillors present (not counting those debarred by reason of a disclosable pecuniary interest) falls below the required quorum, the meeting shall be adjourned and business not transacted shall be transacted at a following meeting.
- f) The public shall be admitted to all meetings of the Council who may, however, temporarily exclude the public by means of the following resolution: 'That in view of the confidential nature of the business about to be transacted, it is advisable in the public interest that the public be temporarily excluded and they are instructed to withdraw'. The Council shall state the special reason for exclusion.
- g) Subject to standing order 1f, members of the public are permitted to make representations, answer questions and give evidence in respect of any item of business included in the agenda during the 15 minute parishioner time.
- h) The local Member of Parliament, County Councillors, District Councillors, police representatives and incumbent vicar are permitted to speak during council meetings.
- i) Photography, recording, broadcasting or transmitting the proceedings of a meeting by any means is not permitted without the Council's prior written consent.
- j) In accordance with 1i, the press shall be provided reasonable facilities for the taking of their report of all or part of the meeting at which they are entitled to be present.
- k) The Chairman, if present, shall preside at a meeting. If the Chairman is absent from a meeting, the Vice-Chairman shall preside. If both the Chairman and Vice-Chairman are absent, a Councillor chosen by the Councillors present at the meeting shall preside.
- l) Subject to standing orders which indicate otherwise, anything authorised or required to be done by, to or before the Chairman, may in his absence be done by, to or before the Vice-Chairman.
- m) The person presiding at the meeting may exercise all the powers and duties of the Chairman in relation to the conduct of the meeting.
- n) Councillors must make a verbal declaration of the existence and nature of any disclosable pecuniary interest at any meeting they are present where an item of business which affects or relates to the subject matter of that interest is under consideration (unless the interest is sensitive, as defined by the Localism Act, in which event you need not disclose the nature of the interest)

- o) Councillors must make a verbal declaration of the existence and nature of any non-disclosable pecuniary interest at any meeting they are present (see Code of Conduct for a definition of a non-disclosable pecuniary interest).
- p) Councillors must comply with the statutory requirements to register, disclose and withdraw from participating in respect of any matter in which you have a disclosable pecuniary interest (unless a dispensation has been obtained). Councillors must leave the room whilst the item is considered.
- q) A dispensation may be granted to permit a member to discuss and vote on an item where they have a disclosable pecuniary interest if after having had regard to all relevant circumstances, the council considers that without the dispensation the number of persons prohibited from participating in any particular business would be so great a proportion of the body transacting the business as to impede the transaction of the business, or considers that granting the dispensation is in the interests of people living in the authority's area, or considers that it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation. A member must submit a written request to the council for a dispensation.
- r) A dispensation must specify the period for which it has effect and must not exceed four years.
- s) No member of the council shall disclose to any person, not a member of the council, any business declared to be confidential by the council.

2. Voting

- a) Members shall vote verbally or by show of hands.
- b) All questions at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the Councillors present and voting thereon.
- c) At the request of a Councillor, the voting of any question shall be recorded so as to show whether each councillor present and voting gave his vote for or against that question. Such a request shall be made before moving on to the next item of business on the agenda.
- d) The Chairman may give an original vote on to any matter put to the vote, and in case of an equality of votes may exercise his casting vote, whether or not he gave an original vote.

3. Statutory Annual Meeting

- a) In an election year, the statutory Annual Meeting of the Council shall be held or within 14 days following the day on which the new Councillors elected take office
- b) In a year which is not an election year, the Annual Meeting of the Council shall be held on such a day in May as the Council may direct.
- c) If no other time is fixed, the Annual Meeting of the Council shall take place at 6pm.
- d) In addition to the Annual Meeting of the Council, at least three other ordinary meetings shall be held in each year on such dates and times as the council directs.
- e) The election of the Chairman and Vice Chairman shall be the first business completed at the Annual Meeting of the council.
- f) The Chairman of the Council, unless he has resigned or becomes disqualified, shall continue in office and preside at the Annual Meeting until his successor is elected at the next annual meeting of the Council.

- g) The Chairman of the Council, unless he has resigned or becomes disqualified, shall hold office immediately after the election of the Chairman of the Council at the next Annual Meeting of the Council.
- h) In an election year, if the current Chairman of the Council has not been re-elected as a member of the Council, he shall preside at the meeting until a successor Chairman has been elected. The current Chairman shall not have an original vote in respect of the election of the new Chairman but must give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- i) In an election year, if the current Chairman has been re-elected as a member of the Council, he shall preside at the meeting until a new Chairman has been elected. He may exercise an original vote in respect of the election of the new Chairman and must give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- j) At each Annual Meeting of the Council the first business shall be:
 - i. To elect a Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Council
 - ii. To receive the Chairman's declaration of acceptance of office
 - iii. In the ordinary year of election of the Council to fill any vacancies left unfilled at the election by reason of insufficient nominations
 - iv. To decide when any declarations of acceptance of office and written undertakings to comply with the Code of Conduct adopted by the Council which have not been received as provided by law shall be received
 - v. Confirmation of the accuracy of the minutes of the last meeting of the Council
 - vi. In an election year, delivery by councillors of their declarations of acceptance of office
 - vii. Review of standing orders, financial regulations and risk management policy

4. Extraordinary Meetings

- a) The Chairman of the Council may convene an extraordinary meeting of the Council at any time.
- b) If the Chairman of the Council does not or refuses to call an extraordinary meeting of the Council within 7 days of having been requested to do so by two councillors, those two councillors may convene an extraordinary meeting of the Council. The statutory public notice giving the time, venue and agenda for such a meeting must be signed by the two councillors.

5. Disorderly Conduct

- a) No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly.

- b) If, in the opinion of the Chairman, there has been a breach of standing order 5a, the Chairman shall express that opinion and thereafter any councillor may move that the person be silenced or excluded from the meeting, and the motion, if seconded, shall be put forth with or without discussion.
- c) If a resolution made in accordance with standing order 5b above, is disobeyed, the Chairman may take such further steps as may reasonably be necessary to enforce it or he may adjourn the meeting.

6. Minutes

- a) The minutes of a meeting shall record the names of councillors present and absent.
- b) All minutes kept by the Council shall be open for the inspection of any member of the Council.
- c) If a copy of the draft minutes of a preceding meeting has been circulated to councillors, no later than the service of the summons to attend the scheduled meeting, they shall be taken as read.
- d) No discussion of the draft minutes of a preceding meeting shall take place except in relation to their accuracy.
- e) Minutes, including any amendment to correct their accuracy, shall be confirmed by resolution and shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting and stand as an accurate record of the meeting to which the minutes relate.
- f) Upon a resolution which confirms the accuracy of the minutes of the meeting, any previous draft minutes or recordings of that meeting shall be destroyed.

7. Advisory Committees

- a) The Council may appoint advisory committees comprised of a number of Councillors and non-councillors. Advisory committees may consist wholly of persons who are non-councillors.
